Examples of wording

Should you wish to remember The ManKind Initiative in your Will you might wish to take the following wording suggestions for a *residuary bequest and a *pecuniary bequest to your solicitor. They will ensure that your wishes are accurately followed.

Residuary bequest (a proportion)

I give (x %) of the residue of my real and personal estate whatsoever and wheresoever (my residuary estate) which I can dispose of by Will in any manner I think proper to The ManKind Initiative (Registered Charity No. 1089547) of Flook House, Belvedere Road, Taunton, TA1 1BT to be used for its general charitable purposes and the receipt of the Trustees or the proper officer for the time being of The ManKind Initiative shall be a complete discharge to my Executors.

Pecuniary bequest (a set sum)

I give the sum of £ x.xx (x pounds) to The ManKind Initiative (Registered Charity No. 1089547) of Flook House, Belvedere Road, Taunton, TA1 1BT to be used for its general charitable purposes and the receipt of the Trustees or other proper officer for the time being of The ManKind Initiative shall be a complete discharge to my Executors.

Once you have chosen from above whichever wording (residuary or pecuniary) is appropriate, you also need to insert the following clause:

If at my death any charity named as a beneficiary in this Will or any Codicil hereto has changed its name or amalgamated with or transferred its assets to another body then my Executors shall give effect to any gift made to such charity as if it had been made (in the first case) to the body in its changed name or (in the second place) to the body which results from such amalgamation or to which such transfer has been made.
